

Script Example

We UTI Infrastructure Technology and Service Limited, is one of those leading organisation provides technology and outsourcing services.

Having more than 25 years of experience in card based solutions, High volume transaction processing and citizen centric solutions, we are one of the largest financial service providers in India.

With proven market leadership in mutual fund distribution and sales, R&T agent service, medical bill processing and facility management service, we also manage entire online process of pan card services including issuance, printing and verification through online portal.

So what exactly pan card is and why it is so important?

PAN Card (Permanent Account Number) is a computer-bases system generated unique 10-digit alphanumeric identification number issued by the Indian Income Tax department under the supervision of central board of direct taxes to every individual.

PAN Card helps Income-Tax authority to track all financial transaction of tax payer and helps reducing the chances of tax evasion.

It is an important and essential for a large number of monetary transaction, Purchases of Mutual Funds and Insurance Policy, Sale or purchase of the property and in many other financial transactions.

That's not it, Filing of IT Return, Tax deductions, Claiming of Income Tax Refund, opening a Bank Account are some of the benefits of Pan Card and most important it serves as an important identity proof.

It is an important and essential for Filing of IT Return, Making Investment, Buying or Selling of the property, opening a Bank Account, insurance payments and most important it serves as an important identity proof.

So login today for hassle free pan card service on www.utiitsl.com